UNIFORM POLICY

Note:

It is compulsory for all students to have all the required school uniform. Failure to wear the standard uniform is a violation of KCS school rules.

SCHOOL DRESS CODE

At Kundayi Chiundiza School, we value the importance of our school uniform in fostering self-esteem, belonging, and self-discipline among our students. Our uniform policy prioritizes student well-being, safety, and community image. Considering factors such as health, safety, comfort, modesty, affordability, social equity, and activity levels, we have established the following guidelines for all students.

Uniform Expectations

1. Kundayi Chiundiza School students are expected to wear the complete day or sports uniform, adhering to the school routine.
2. Students must maintain a neat and tidy appearance at all times, including while traveling to and from school.
3. This standard of dress and appearance ensures that our students proudly represent themselves and the Kundayi Chiundiza School community.

By upholding this standard, our students reflect the high reputation and expectations of our school.

Standard Day Uniform

The day uniform is the school's expected uniform for everyday. The day uniform is also the standard expected to be worn on days deemed formal occasions by the school e.g prize giving day, school photographs and some excursions.
